NEWS FROM THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

It is May! Please renew your membership to AAUW for the 2016-2017 year. Definitely renew before June 30th to be included within our directory! Membership renewal includes the following dues: $73. The breakdown of the dues for one year is $49.00 to National, $11.00 to State and $13.00 to our branch! Remember $46.00 is tax deductible. Dues for Life Members are $24.00. (Details on how to renew online are on page 6)

This year you might want to add a little donation when you renew. There is an endowment fund to honor the late Ann Chipley, past president of AAUW North Carolina. She was devoted to issues of equity for women, serving AAUW as a staff member for nearly ten years, initially serving as the director of the Program and Public Policy Department and ending as a member of the AAUW senior staff. This fund is to support post graduate studies for NC women. It was set up in 1996 with the goal of $100,000 but will "expire" this year unless we, AAUW NC, complete the fund with an additional $9,000. If we cannot do this, then the money will be turned into general scholarships and not be specifically designated for North Carolina. The deadline is May 30, 2017. When you register on line, you can help us keep this endowment fund!

FROM THE BRANCH PRESIDENT

Greetings!

Can't believe this year has passed so quickly. This will be my final newsletter entry as your President, and Wendy Haner will assume this role July 1st. Our annual business meeting is set for May 24th when we will approve our new Officers and Board members and the revision of our branch by-laws. You should have received the draft of the by-laws by email. The list of candidates will be sent soon.

Wendy and I attended the AAUW-NC annual conference April 1-2, and came away with some good ideas for the coming year. Also, after reminding the group that about half of all members in the state are from our area, we offered to hold the 2017 state convention in Asheville, in partnership with the Hendersonville and Brevard branches. Stay tuned for this.

At the business session, a resolution was unanimously passed to affirm support for the equal rights of all our citizens and urge the NC General Assembly to repeal House Bill 2. The non-partisan Public Policy program of AAUW- National states that "No American should be denied the full range of civil rights and civil liberties due to their sexual orientation or gender identity. More on this can be found at: <http://www.aauw.org/files/2013/02/position-on-LGBT-rights-112.pdf>

As a reminder, if you are not taking advantage of the many opportunities in our branch to participate in a project, committee or special interest group, you are not getting the most from your membership. I challenge you to invest more of your time and talent in the coming year.

And finally, it has been an honor and a pleasure to serve our branch over the past months. Thank you for the opportunity and your support.

Spring is here...enjoy!

Carolyn

A SECOND PRIMARY ELECTION WILL BE HELD JUNE 7

AAUW Advocacy wants to make sure you are aware that on June 7, NC will have a second Primary to elect each party's candidates for Congress. In February, the NC Legislature redrew the Congressional Districts as a result of a court finding that the existing Districts were illegally drawn. November will be the final election to determine who represents each of us in congress. Go to Buncombe County Board of Elections web site to learn more about the election and the candidates.

If you would like to join our group, our next meeting will be

May 25 at 10:00 at the YWCA.

LEARN SOMETHING NEW—PRACTICE SOMETHING OLD

Asheville AAUW and Asheville Area Habitat for Humanity's WB (Women Build) program are natural partners. Both have the interest of all women at heart, and both work to promote the welfare of all women. So, if you have ever wanted to hit anything really hard - 'uh like a nail with a hammer, join us for a day with Asheville Area Habitat's WB. Never fear, what you think you can't do is a myth and you will learn what you don't know.

Asheville Area Habitat builds one WB house a year. This year, the volunteer calendar for the house starts in May and ends in July. We are proposing that an AAUW group volunteer for one day this year. Because the work calendar fills up very quickly, the only days now available to us are Saturdays so I have scheduled AAUW's group for June 18 for 7 slots which means 7 of you can sign up. If more of you want to do it I can tell you how to sign up individually.

Practical info: We are asked to be there by 8:30 for the safety talk. There are scheduled morning & afternoon breaks and a half-hour lunch. BYOL & WATER. You should, of course, take whatever breaks you need and if you'd rather not do a particular task, just say so. Standard crew is 8 people and I would plan to work that day as well. So, if you are interested, please send your name, email & phone number to Joyce Davis at jd2d@bellsouth.net

For more information contact: womenbuild@habitat.org and http://www.habitat.org/wb/wb_history.aspx <http://www.habitat.org/how/historytext.aspx> for history of Habitat for Humanity and HFHI www.ashevillehabitat.org for Asheville's Habitat affiliate.

AAUW MEMBERS SHARE NEWS

The GEM Fundraising Committee will have a Fall fundraising event, an Upscale Garage Sale. It will be held at the Beaver Dam Fire Station, 450 Beaver Dam Road on October 15th, 2016. We will be asking for volunteers and, of course, stuff to be placed in the sale. If you have any interest in volunteering, please contact Karen Mauro at 828 891 5963 or ktminnc@gmail.com.

AAUW-Asheville branch is very proud of our involvement with the YWCA. The Empowerment Child Care and Getting Ahead (formerly Drop In Day Care) programs has helped over 200 parents find jobs, pursue education and secure vital social services. Together with your support we are building a stronger community. One woman stated, "Bringing my daughter to the YWCA has been one of the best choices I've ever made. Not only did the YWCA help me with free child care and valuable parenting and life skills, they helped me find a place to call home."

Our continued support whether through dollars or volunteering empowers women to find jobs, pursue education, and keep their families out of poverty. Unfortunately, there are still countless families who are struggling in our community, lets us all support building a stronger community by volunteering at The Empowerment Child Care Program at the Asheville YWCA.

CHRISTI WHITWORTH IS OUR SPEAKER FOR MAY

Christi Whitworth, the education director for the Pisgah Astronomical Research Institute (PARI), will be the featured speaker at the AAUW branch meeting.

Whitworth has been instrumental in having PARI designated not only as the North Carolina host of the National Girls Collaborative Project (with which AAUW has long been associated) but also as one of only 10 "museums" in the country (and the only one in North Carolina) to host the popular PBS initiated SciGirls program.

While the National Girls Collaborative Project aims to bring together providers of STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) programs with organizations seeking STEM activities for girls, the SciGirls program targets girls ages 9-14 with monthly programming on a variety of topics. Sci-Girls programs are open to all area girls; no prior participation in Sci-Girls is required.

After being developed as a NASA tracking station in 1963 (October marked its 50th anniversary) and then evolving into a Department of Defense center for satellite data collection, PARI is now a not-for-profit foundation dedicated to providing hands-on educational and research opportunities for a broad cross-section of users in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) disciplines. Besides the programs targeted toward girls, Whitworth manages other educational programs and research activities geared towards high school and college students and teachers, often in collaboration with scientific professionals.

Dollars for Scholars

Every month Jeanne Smolkin sends out an email with a link to Survey Monkey. This is NOT a survey, so please don't delete the message. Instead, open it up to find a list of branch members with birthdays that month. You will have the opportunity to check the names of those to whom you would like Jeanne to send a special GEM birthday card in honor of their birthday. You can also designate non-members to whom you would like a card sent. Contributions can be as low as $10 and it's a wonderful way to honor your friends and loved ones on their birthday, as well as donate a bit to a GEM scholarship. Cards are created especially for GEM by branch member Alice Doner, who says that she is always so glad to get her own card from member friends. The program is in its second year and, so far, has netted over $10,000 over two years — that's 10 scholarships! So, please, keep those cards coming.

 coming in October, GEM will be hosting*

at the firehouse on Beaver Dam Road. So gather your treasures — household items, books, CD's, knick-knacks, kitchen ware, etc. — and save them for the fall sale. More information coming in June.

At our April Branch meeting B.A. Schenk (left) showed off her Condom Couture outfit she bought at a Planned Parenthood fundraiser. And Shirley Quisenberry (right) shared a story that she had gotten married in her senior year at University of Nebraska. It was 1949 and she was dressed up for her honeymoon when she ran into the university Chancellor at the train station. Had that happened one year earlier, he would have had to expel her from school as married women were not allowed to attend.

We’ve come a long way baby!
